

Plaques & Mounting System

A range of Integra decorative metal and wood poles are available as display samples. Poles are mounted on frosted acrylic plaques suitable for all retail environments. A wall mounting system is also available allowing you to tailor your display to suit your individual requirements. Samples can be easily removed from the mounting system for customer home consultation, window displays etc.

Please contact your distributor for more details.

Countertop

Integra countertops are available for selected metal and wood poles.

Please contact your distributor for more details.

Cases

Integra cases are available for selected metal and wood poles.

Please contact your distributor for more details.

IMD2 Stock Stand

A stock stand is available which is suitable for most retail pack products. Free on loan with qualifying order.

Please contact your distributor for more details.