Curtain Rails and Accessories

meditation...

Still yourself, gently close your eyes, take a deep breath. As you gently and slowly breathe out, let all your cares just drift away. Empty your mind.

Imagine you are sitting in a beautiful room, your personal sanctuary. It's a warm sunny day, the window is wide open. You are aware of birdsong and of the gentle sounds of water cascading from a small fountain.

A cool fragrant breeze is gently kissing your face, beautiful drapes float into the room.

Inhale again, deeper this time. Become aware of every small detail, of the furniture, the soft furnishings. Notice the drapes, the way they float into the room, bringing in the spirit of the garden.

Notice they are suspended from..... a curtain pole with the most beautiful finials.

Take another deep breath and when you are ready, gently open your eyes. What did you see?

Modern Rustic,
Sleek Sophistication,
Bohemian Romantic,
Divinely Decadent?

The curtain pole you visualised is here.

Just turn the page.
